

International cooperation

Presently entered into contracts with Xinjiang by an agrarian university on organization of laboratory in area of veterinary diagnostics, with Giessen by an university the name of U.Liebig on bringing in of leading professors for delivering a lecture and realization of laboratory-practical employments. So, professor Giessen university Christian Bauer is the academic professor of university, to them annually in the flow of semester reading of lectures and laboratory-practical employments is conducted on discipline "Parasitology and invasion illnesses". In addition, an agreement is attained on signing of memorandum on a collaboration with a federal reviewer center as evaluated by a risk Berlin (Germany), there are agreements with Institutions of higher learning of near (Novosibirsk, Omsk, Troitsk, Voronezh, Moscow, Saratov, Kazan, Irkutsk etc.) abroad.

The subjects of master's degree and doctoral dissertations correspond to the themes of scientific researches of department and sanctified to the questions of study of safety of products of stock-raising, prophylaxis and measures of fight against the infectious diseases of animals, to the analysis of risk and prognostication in veterinary science. Annually masters and doctoral drive out in foreign Institutions of higher learning and NII for passing of internship.

The employees of department annually study on the courses of in-plant training in the leading scientific centers of republic, Russia Federation and countries of far abroad (Germany, Poland of and other).

The results of international cooperation find the reflection in regular joint publications in high-rating scientific editions.

Guest lectures for period covered:

1. Lutz Ferdinand Litski is a doctor of veterinary sciences, professor Giessen university the name of U. Liebig (Germany).
2. Paul Torgerson - PhD doctor, professor Zurich University (Switzerland).
3. Christian Bauer is a doctor of veterinary sciences, professor Giessen.

The analysis of employment of graduating students shows that in connection with a sharp necessity, that in connection with the sharp necessity of veterinary specialists, the special problems in employment are not present. The level of highly sought of graduating students of speciality is annually watched 5B120100 is Veterinary medicine, the percent of employment of graduating students makes 95-96%. A department supports close connection with graduating students.

